

PURPOSE, MEMBERSHIP & MEETING INFORMATION

Texas is an open primary state. Every person who votes Republican in the primary is a Party member until 12/31 of the following year.

A political party, BCRP cannot charge a membership fee. However, donations are gratefully accepted. Funds support the GOP office, Federal candidate signs, voter outreach & contact such as the 2024 Voter Guide. The BCRP does not endorse in primary races.

Meetings: 4th Monday, 6pm, GOP Office (see BastropCtyGOP.com)

A GPAC*, LPRW has annual membership dues. Its fundraisers support GOP candidates, trainings, and various community projects. LPRW does not endorse in primary races.

LPRW has directly donated to candidates on the ballot in Bastrop County, more than $20,000 in the past 7 years. LPRW co-authored & split the costs of the 2022 & 2024 Voter Guide with the Bastrop County Republican Party.

Meetings: 3rd Thursday, 6pm, LPRW Club House (see LostPinesRW.org) (no meeting July/Aug)

A GPAC*, the GOP Club is primarily a social club. This club holds monthly Movie Nights on the 1st Thursday. Open to all Bastrop County Republicans. Members receive dinner discounts. The GOP Club has 2 informative blogs on its website: BastropCtyGOPClub.com

Gatherings: 1st Tuesday, 6pm, LPRW Club House (not July/Aug). Dinner, movie schedule and registration at BastropCtyGOPClub.com.

A GPAC*, the Bastrop County Conservatives typically meets at Casa Chapala in Bastrop. Meetings feature speakers on a variety of timely topics. Bastrop County Conservatives does endorse in primary races.

Meetings: No set date/time. See BastropCC.com for calendar.

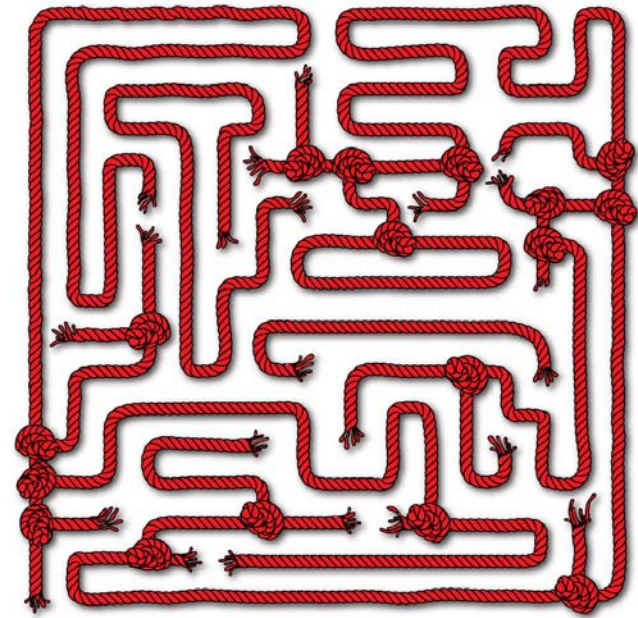

A GPAC*, the Bastrop County Young Republicans is an organization created in Bastrop County to connect, educate and activate young professionals and students between the ages of 18 and 40 in support of the Republican Party. It is an official chapter of the Texas Young Republican Federation.

Meetings: See BastropYR.com for calendar.

*GPAC: General Political Action Committee as defined by the Texas Ethics Commission. All GPACs must file periodic financial reports available online at <https://www.ethics.state.tx.us>.
